Introduct ion

The chairman, Mr Bickmore extended a cordial welcome to all those present, and was pleased at the response received to his invitation to attend. He invited open discussion on the growing need of equestrian riders in the northern districts, for proper instruction and training, ^{and} under experienced instructors in show jumping. He felt that a club was necessary
"closer to home", in these days of petrol shortage.
With the wealth of organising ability and experience of some of the people present, and with willing dedicated workers, we had the ingredients for a good club. With confidence and enthusiasm expressed by all, a club was created.

The following officers were nominated and elected unanimously:-

Office
Bearers

President- M. Bickmore
Vice President - R. Ames
Secretary - M.B. Mowle
Treasurer - J. Brice.
Committee- All those present and named above.
Mr. Wyatt rescinded.
